They are universally popular and usable, being suitable for wear upon most every occasion.

So many times a coat of this character lends itself to such style advantage.

The large collars, too, are very voguish—and can be worn by every type of woman.

Stylish, but also quality made in every detail, these coats will give the wearer splendid service.

All are moderately priced and excellent value.

HILBORN-TUCKER

The home of S. C. Hilborn of this city was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when Earl W. Tucker, of Marlette, and Miss Verna A. Gleason, of Yale, formerly of Snover, were united in marriage. The parlor was decorated in blue and white. The bride was becomingly dressed in navy blue silk tricolette. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jeffrey, of Port Huron. Rev. A. E. Potbury, of the local F. M. church performed the ceremony.

After an extended honeymoon through the southern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will be at home to their friends on the farm in Elmer township.

A host of friends join in wishing them much happiness.

CARD OF THANKS

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Yale evidence—doubly proven.

Mrs. Robert Herron, Mary St., gave the following statement on July 28, 1909:—"At the time I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I was suffering everything with my back. It hurt me to stoop over and I couldn't be on my feet for any length of time without having sharp shooting pains through my loins and back. My head was also dizzy and pained a great deal. I used everything I heard of, but could get no relief until I began with Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got from Holden's Drug Store. I noticed an improvement in my health right away and had not used quite three boxes when my health and strength was completely restored."

Uses Doan's Occasionally

On August 7, 1919, Mrs. Herron said:—"I gladly confirm my statement regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's are a grand remedy and I couldn't get along without them. I have used them since and the benefit derived has always been of the best."
